Portfolio

If you asked me how I got here, I'd tell you I don't know, then I'd show you some of my past creative design projects.

-Ty Posadovsky

CD Cover for Distakore

This was a project I did for my visual dynamics final. It consists of many layering and blending techniques. I was quite happy with how it turned out.

Web Development: G-Portal Website

This was a project I did for my web development class. I coded the website myself and designed all of its elements. The website is fully responsive. Click the link to view the website.

Poster Redesign

I redesigned the Avengers: Age of Ultron poster in Photoshop. To do this I outlined the shapes of all the heroes and used a gradient overlay to blend them with the ground.
